

Call for proposals

The Faculty of Economics and Business Administration announces a call for applications for demonstrator positions for the 2026/2027 academic year. The task of the demonstrator is to join the teaching work of the elected department under the direction of the head of the department, to participate in research work, and to participate in the performance of the department's administrative tasks if necessary.

In the 2026/2027 academic year, a second, third-year BSc/BA, a first- or second-year MSc/MA student who meets the following requirements can apply for demonstrator places:

- † exemplary behaviour and active participation in community work
- † in the previous two closed semesters, your credit index is at least 4.00
- † completed the compulsory subjects of the second semester of the 2025/2026 academic year and closed the semester at the end of the spring exam period
- † he/she shows a deep interest in the chosen field of expertise related to the department, and this is proven by achieving excellent results.

The mandate will run from 1 October 2026 to the end of June 2027.

A demonstrator pursuing a state scholarship will receive a scholarship for the performance of the task.

The National Higher Education Scholarship, the Department Coordinator (Demonstrator) and the Priority Study Scholarship cannot be disbursed at the same time. Students enrolled in self-funded and English-language programs do not receive scholarships.

Applications must be submitted to the competent institute/department by 04 September 2026 (Friday) at 12:00 noon, on a form downloadable from the Faculty's website, with the CV attached.

Dr. Veronika Fenyves s.k.
Professor, Dean